Flag Day Ceremony Wrap Up

Your Lodge celebrated Flag Day, June 14th, by performing the mandated Flag Day Ceremony. Over 30 people attended the event to honor the Flag and its history.

Flag ins were offered to all those in attendance. The officers performed their part perfectly. PSP Jerry read the Flag History while members of Boy Scout Troop #113 paraded the various Flags for all to see. Gary Strevel read the Resonse, urging all to continue to honor the Flag of our country. The oration was iven by Robert LaPorta, Viet Nam Veteran. Bob refreshed our understanding of our symbol of unity. Music was provided by John & Gary. Ida prepared the refreshments. Thank you to Marilyn Ryan for the cake! Let us never forget that the Star Spangled Banner is ours to love an defend.
