Why is volunteering so valuable?

Volunteering is the ultimate expression of human relationships – people acting on behalf of their communities, because of a desire to contribute and help. As a result, volunteers tend to be highly engaged and committed to the outcomes of their work. Volunteering is democratic – each volunteering day can be seen as an active vote towards what the volunteer believes their world should look like. I challenge you to believe. Step forward if you are inspired to give your time to help people in your community. Want to know more about how you could volunteer with the ELKS and make a real difference in the lives of those in your community, as well as your own? Contact any officer or stop by the Lodge. We'll be waiting.

Did you know?

We're a community. No matter where you go in the United States, an Elks Lodge is right around the corner. With more than 850 thousand members and 2,000 Lodges nationwide, we provide charitable services that help make our communities stronger. We are an organization working towards providing volunteer opportunities in the community. Our mission is to give back through community service projects, donations, assistance, and more. Committed to promoting the patriotic principles of individual freedom, opportunity and dignity, the Order of Elks is non-sectarian and non-political. With members from all sectors, denominations and political parties, the Order has always been a medium through which people could understand each other in spite of differences. Today, the Elks of New York continue the tradition and uphold the four cardinal virtues of the Lodge....

Charity, Justice, Brotherly Love and Fidelity. Times have changed, but the Elks' spirit remains constant. The organization is dedicated to community service; specifically, children and adults with disabilities, and veterans. It sponsors community activities and charitable functions such as food basket donations to the needy and scholarships for high school students. We believe that Veterans deserve recognition for their commitment to our country and their dedication to serving. At The Elks Lodge, we place a special emphasis on veteran services and honoring our local veterans. Community service is the best way to give back to your local town and to show your appreciation. Elks Care, Elks Share. Give back. Join the Elks.
