My Brothers and Sisters:

Summer is now over and Fall has begun. September was a very busy month. We finished parking cars for the Columbia County Fair, in Chatham, on September 5th. A special "thank you" goes out to Chris Akers, Jerry Shook and all the Elks who took time out of their busy schedules to help. Many of these people worked more than once shift. Some, in fact, worked everyday. It is greatly appreciated that these people stepped up and made this event a success once again.

Many Elks were called to donate four hours of their time and many of them refused to help for one reason or another. The money from this fundraiser helps pay a lot of expenses to keep our lodge up and running. The "Fair" is the same time every year. Please keep this in mind for 2017 and step forward to lend a hand. Please do not say "I am too busy", this is your lodge too.

Our Veterans enjoyed another great day of fishing at the home of John DeLong, he has a beautiful pond well stocked with many fish. Everyone had a great time and returned to the Elks Lodge for hot dogs and hamburgers. Thank you to Veteran's Chairman Charlie Davis, his assistant Tom Miglio and all the members who helped to make this a wonderful outing for our Veterans.

On September 10th, our lodge was visited by our NYS President Bill Reedy, Jr., his wife Lisa and their traveling companions, Brian and Tonia. They came to our lodge after spending some time at the Red Hook-Rhinebeck 400 club party. Also, spending the day and traveling with them were PSP Jerry

Shook, his wife Abby and SVP Chris Akers. Gifts were presented to Bill and

Lisa from ER Steve Race and SVP Chris Akers. Many thanks for John Piddick and Chris for suppling snacks. It was a very fun visit and thanks to the officers and fellow Elks who joined us in welcoming our guests.

From September 22nd to the 25th Heather and I attended our Fall Conference in White Plains. PSP Jerry Shook, Abby and SVP Chris Akers were also in attendance. Many informative meetings were attended by all. A banquet was held Saturday evening in honor of our Grand Exalted Ruler Michael Zellen and his wife Donna, (who had a wonderful sense of humor).

I want to thank Heather and all our District ER's for doing a great job with the food and keeping our hospitality room open for almost the whole duration of the conference.

The back ramp going outside to the pavilion is finally complete, thanks to Annie, Larry Knott and everyone who lent a hand. Thank you!

The Elks visitation schedule is posted on our bulletin board. Please think about attending at least one this Fall. Anyone wishing to go and would like a ride, please contact ER Steve.

I hope to see "many" of you at our annual "worker's party" on Saturday, October 8th. Your Elks officers are working hard planning this party so that everyone can have a great day!

ER Steve Race
